Rich Pearson

Owner and Operator of The Slackline School

Rich wasn't sure university would be for him. He took the plunge anyway...

Fast forward 10 years, and he's the owner of one of the most unique events companies in the country and even gets paid to go to festivals!

His best advice:

Don't panic, just make the best of the opportunities that are presented.

How did he get here?

- A-Levels in Philosophy, History, Law, English, Film and Media Studies
- BA (Hons) Broadcasting at Falmouth University

"THE MOST IMPORTANT THING I TOOK FROM UNIVERSITY WAS THE ABILITY TO TALK TO PEOPLE"
