

Do you need friendly, impartial answers to questions about going to university?

Well, now you can! Our Unibuddy platform makes it easy for you as a student to contact people that are currently studying in higher education. It's just like texting someone!

So, if you have a question about student life, finance, qualifications, or anything relating to higher education, what are you waiting for?

- 1 Visit nextstepsw.ac.uk/unibuddy to speak with a member of staff or student ambassador.
- 2 Look through the available 'buddy' profiles. Make sure to click 'Read more about...' in order to see their full profile and availability.
- 3 Once you have selected the buddy you would like to speak with, click 'Chat with...' and you will be taken to the chat function.
- 4 Select 'Start chatting now' and you will be asked to create an account. This requires you to enter your name, email address and a password.
- 5 Begin chatting! There may be a delay in your response whilst you wait for the person to respond. Be reassured that your message is important, and you will get a reply as soon as possible! If you don't get an immediate response, you will be notified by email when a reply has come in.
